

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/H/6312 W.

Abstract of the Will of John Hockin of the Parish of Gwithian in the County of Cornwall, Yeoman, written 28 Mar 1765, proved 4 Oct 1765.

Gives £5 to his elder sister Blanch Phillips, and 5 shillings each to her five daughters.

Gives £5 to his second sister Jane Harris.

Gives to his nephew Richard Phillips his right and title in a tenement called Treloweth Wartha in Park in the parish of Illogan, directing that Richard pay out of the proceeds thereof £3 annually to the four children of the said Jane Harris.

Gives to his kinsman Benjamin Hockin a moiety of a tenement called Burn Cose in Illogan, and his right and title in its two mines.

Gives £10 to his servant man Phillip Andrewartha, along with all his wearing apparel.

Gives to his brother Benjamin Hockin his right and title in the tenements called Nantarow Ullus [Wollas] in the parish of Gwithian and Nancemelling East in the parish of Camborne.

Gives his wife Anne Hockin an annuity of £20, to be paid out of the said tenements by his brother Benjamin for the term of her natural life.

All the rest of his goods & chattels, cash and mortgages, he gives to his wife Anne Hockin, appointing her sole executrix of his last will and testament.

(Signed)

Witnesses: Ralph Clemens, Anne Michel Jun^r., Roger Cock