

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/P/4528 W.

Abstract of the Will of Francis Paynter of Trekenning in the (Parish of St. Columb Major and) County of Cornwall, Gentleman, written 9 Jul 1819, proved 20 Aug 1822.

To be buried close to his wife in the churchyard of St. Columb Major.

Whereas he has already made a liberal provision to his son Francis Camborne Paynter, he gives him an additional 20 guineas. And to Francis' wife, Elizabeth, he gives five guineas, to their son Edward two guineas.

Whereas he has already laid out £2000 to his son Charles Henry Paynter, over and above an annuity of £250 for personal expenses, he gives him an additional £200. And to Charles' wife, Fanny, he gives five guineas.

Give to his sons John Pender Paynter and Thomas Francis Paynter his tin bounds and shares of tin bounds in Whele Vor [Wheal Veor] in the parish of Breage and near Helston, as well as in Redruth and St. Austell.

Gives to his son John Pender Paynter his dwelling house in Trekenning in the parish of St. Columb Major, as well as a moiety of those enclosures called Castulost?.

Gives an annuity or yearly rent charge of £50 to his son Thomas Francis Paynter, a moiety of Dunstan's (Dunkin's?) meadow, currently divided into two fields, the enclosure called Bolitho's fields in St. Columb Major, and his interest in the house and garden in Higher Trekenning now occupied by William Clemence. Also gives Thomas £200.

All the rest of his goods & chattels, rights, credits and effects, he gives to his son John Pender Paynter, whom he appoints sole executor of his last will and testament.

(Signed)

Witnesses: Tho^s Whitford, J Tom, Richard Berryman

In a codicil dated 5 Jan 1820 he revokes the legacy of £200 to his son Charles Henry Paynter, while confirming the legacy of five guineas to Charles' wife Fanny, and giving the further sum of two guineas to their daughter Emily Margareta Bateman.