

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/P/3504 W.

Abstract of the Will of Jane Philp of the Parish of St. Kew in the County of Cornwall, Widow, written 21 Dec 1765, proved 20 Jun 1766.

Gives £200 to her son Samuel Philp.

Gives to Honor Philp the wife of her son Francis Philp a piece of gold worth £3 12s.

Gives to her grandson Thomas Philp the son of Francis Philp a silver pint cup and one piece of gold worth £3 12s.

Gives to her grandson James Reed Philp son of Francis Philp one piece of gold worth £3 12s.

Gives £10 to her daughter Joanna Warne and a silver spoon marked J.J.L.

Gives £30 to her daughter Margery Philp, one of two beds, her best round table, her clothing and a silver spoon marked J.L.

Gives £5 to her old servant Ann Boller.

All the rest of her goods and chattels, lands and tenements, she gives to her son Francis Philp, whom she appoints sole executor of her last will and testament.

(Signed)

Witness: Abra<sup>m</sup>. Brown