

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers,
PROB 11/858/52.

Abstract of the Will of Thomas Philp of the Parish of St. Kew in the County of Cornwall, Yeoman, written 29 Jan 1749/50, proved 9 Jul 1760.

Gives to his wife Jane Philp his tenement of fee land in Pendoggat where he now lives, paying an annuity of £4 to his son William Philp and an annuity of 40 shillings to his daughter Margery Philp until she turns twenty-one. After the death of his wife his fee land will descend to his son William Philp and his heirs.

Gives £40 to his son Francis Philp and his right in late Hocking's Tenement in Lanow.

Gives £40 to his son Samuel Philp and all his right in Lanow which came to the testator on the death of his sister Chesson Philp, it being a quarter part of Buttons and Tinnes Tenements and a quarter part of Lanow Mill and Meadows.

Gives £50 to his daughter Joanna Philp.

Gives £50 to his daughter Margery Philp, to be paid to her when she turns twenty-one or marries.

Appoints his wife Jane Philp and his son Francis Philp co-executors of his last will and testament

(Signed)

Witnesses: Anthony Mitchell, John Netting, Gregory Mably

-----

Thomas Philp was buried in St. Endellion, Cornwall on 2 May 1752.