

Kresen Kernow (formerly Cornwall Record Office), Reference: AP/T/3543 W.

Abstract of the Will of Elizabeth Trythall of the Parish of Camborne in County of Cornwall, Widow, written 21 Nov 1802, proved 10 May 1803.

Gives to her son Thomas Trythall the kitchen, the kitchen chamber, the field in front of the door, the field behind the house. After his decease the same shall pass to Mary Kemp for life.

Gives to Ann Trythall the hall, hall chamber and the great field next to the croft. After her death she wills the same to Jane Vial.

Gives to W^m. Trythall the remainder of the croft and its little field. After his death she wills the same to Thomas the son of Thomas Trythall.

Gives to Elizabeth Trythall the land below the lane, as well as the household furniture.

Gives to her son John Trythall an annuity of £5.

Gives to her daughter Jane Vial an annuity of £5.

Gives £5 to her daughter Mary Kemp.

Directs that Agnes the widow of James Trythall is to pay an annuity of 2s. 6d. to Elizabeth Trythall.

Gives 1 shilling each to Anthony and Elizth Trythall, son and daughter of the said James Trythall.

(her sign)

Witnesses: Tho^s Vincent, William Richards, Francis Davey

No executor named.

Administration of the goods &c. of Elizabeth Trythall was granted to her son Thomas Trythall, a legatee named in the will.