

Prerogative Court of Canterbury and related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers, PROB 11/453/198.

Abstract of the Will of John Tufnaile of London, Merchant, written 1 Jul 1699, proved 20 Nov 1699.

Desires to be buried in the parish churchyard where he now lives as near to his late wife as possible.

Gives, devises & bequeaths £4,000 to his current wife, pursuant on an agreement made between them shortly before their marriage.

Also gives & bequeaths to her all the pearls, diamonds and other jewells he presented her, and a further sum of £500 in trust for his son Samuel who is not yet 21 years old.

Gives & bequeaths to his brothers[-in-law] Samuel Moyer, Edward Northey and William Jolliffe Esq. all his messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments until his son Samuel comes of age.

Gives & bequeaths to his daughter Rebecca his best pearl necklace that belonged to her late mother.

Gives & bequeaths to his daughter Elizabeth his other pearl necklace and a pair of diamond pendants that belonged to her late mother.

And as touching and concerning such part of his moneys, goods, chattels and other estate whatsoever which by the custom of the City of London he has the power to give, devise and dispose of, he gives devises & bequeaths the same to his said son Samuel on condition that out of the same he pay to his sisters £4,500 each, and to John's brother and sister Moyer £30, to John's brother and sister Northey £30, and to John's brother Jolliffe £20, to John's brother and sister Merrick £20, to John's brother and sister Burrell £20, to John's cousin John Hiccocks £10, to his cousin Harbert Springet £20 and to his cousins Richard, Anthony & William Springet £10 each, to Mr Barrow, minister, £20, to his cousins George, John & Elizabeth South £10 each, to Dr Fleetwood £20, to John's four servants now living with him £5 each.

And in case after the payment of his debts and funeral expenses and the legacies before given his said son Samuel shall have the remainder of his goods, chattels and personal estate which shall make up his part and share thereof which he can or may claim by the customs of the City of London the sum of £11,000, then he shall pay to his sisters £500 each in addition to what hee has already given them.

Constitutes and appoints his son Samuel executor of his last will and testament.

Appoints his said brothers[-in-law] Samuel Moyer, Edward Northey and William Jolliffe guardians of his said children until his son Samuel reaches the age of 21 years.

Witnesses: Wm Fleetwood, Harbt. Springett, Wm Martin his clerk.
